Dear Dale and Margrett,

Thanks so much for taking the time to come to the Special Events class in March. As usual Dale, you provided the students with keen insights into the security business.

Here are some of the comments below:

“Very informative”

“Didn’t realize about the pre-planning and the skill it takes. Really educational and entertaining”

“I learned about all the different jobs and facets of the security field”

“Interesting, funny and the real-life experiences are useful, lots of tips – I like this guy”

“I learned how important it is to have security at your events and the precautions to take”

“Today I learned about the different aspects of security i.e. in-house security or a private company. I also learned about the ratio of security guards to guests”

“Great guest speaker! Very informative – great idea to have him come in”

Thank you once again. We really appreciate it!!

Regards,
